

Bast'ards

- Anders Bast: Saxophone
- Thor Madsen: Guitar
- Tobias Dall Mikkelsen: Bass
- Michael Dalgas: Drums

Bastard's is an energetic band. They play with humor, with outbursts of energy and everchanging dynamics. The melodies are original compositions sometimes spiced up with traditional folksongs or standards. At the concert you will experience 4 musicians, who follow their instincts and listens to each other.

The titles of the songs often refer to political situations which, Anders Bast hopes to make the audience reflect on and put more focus on.

South of North Dakota is a song written against fracking.

Fat, Sugar, Salt and Tragic is a comment to the nutritional guidelines the american people suffer.
